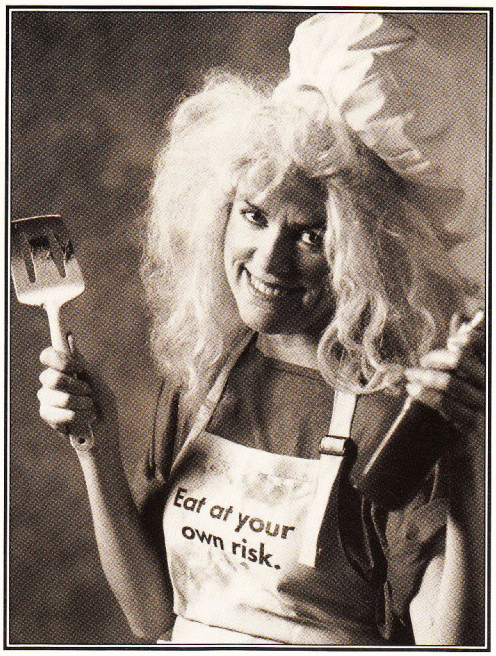
WANTED



Laverne Onions

Laverne Onions

OCCUPATION

SHORT ORDER COOK

DESCRIPTION

Laverne secured her job as chief cook and bottle-washer for Della by withholding the fact that she couldn't find her way around the kitchen without a tour guide. This blonde so-called chef is notorious throughout eastern Missouri for her death-defying dishes and debilitating delectables. Laverne's reputation keeps customers away from "Della's Calf-A" in droves, ensuring no one will walk in on the V.I.L.E. gang members as they're admiring the loot from their latest heist. If a wayward highway patrolman wanders up to the counter, Laverne can whip up an order of her special "salmon salmonella in mayonnaise." A shutterbug in her spare time, Laverne tries to copy the photographs of Ansel Adams, though she really doesn't know an f-stop from a bus stop.
